Townley@Home offers high quality remote learning for students and is of equal importance to the provision delivered in school. The online platforms are facilitated by Google Classrooms and complement the classroom experience for all curriculum areas. Online lessons are planned and, in some cases, delivered by subject specialists and are created in line with educational research.

Townley@Home also extends beyond the curriculum as the range of hubs provide students with a virtual school environment that caters for all, ranging from the Inclusion and Wellbeing Hub, providing support for mental health and wellbeing to Pastoral Hubs, overseen by Learning Managers and House Tutors. Underpinned by our school values, Townley@Home ensures that we offer blended learning, support and opportunity to the entire school community.

Townley provides every student with the opportunity to pursue their creative interests in a range of artistic disciplines in and out of the classroom. Students in the Sixth Form have the opportunity to lead and shape the arts activities we provide to other years in the school, and as connections in and through the arts with King Henry School grow there will be the potential to engage in collaborative work as well as outreach.

At Townley we aim to support you at all levels of experience from those who might be keen to try something new - for example an instrument or dance - to those who display a genuine talent as well as those with a high-level of experience

Do get in touch with the Director of Arts and Culture, Dr Steven Berryman, if you have any questions about the arts:
